Please solve the following problem.

Imagine that you are responsible for placing a postage stamp on each piece of mail that goes out of the mailroom. You receive: three letters from Mr. Hundleby's office, four from Mr. Thompson, seventeen from Mr. Jareau, six from Ms. Harrison, and one from Mrs. Rosario.

Before you have stamped these letters, Mr. Jarreau rushes into the mail room to say that he did not want to send four of his letters and takes these letters back to his office.

How many stamps do you need?
